Held at Lansing.

To the Republican electors of the state of Michigan:

A State Convention of the Republican Michigan is hereby called to meet in the Prudden Auditorium

in the city of Lansing on Tuesday, February 18, 1919, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state office, for the election of a Republican State Central Committee and a chairman thereof, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Under the resolution of 1888 no delegate will be entitled to a seat in the State Convention who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

The delegates from the various counties in each congressional district are requested to meet in district caucus at 9:30 o'clock a. m. on the day of the state convention and select officers as follows to be presented to said convention for confirmation:

- (1) One Vice President.
- (2) One Assistant Secretary.
- (3) One member of the Committee on Resolutions.
- (4) One member of the Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business.
- (5) One member of the Committee on Resolutions.
- (6) Two members of the Republican State Central Committee.

The Chairman and Secretary of each Republican County committee are requested to send to the Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee at Lansing, by first mail after the county caucus is held, a certified list of the delegates chosen by said convention to the Republican State Convention hereby called, giving the residential address of each delegate so that the temporary roll of the convention may be prepared.

By order of the Republican State Central Committee.
C. F. BROWN, Chairman.
D. E. ALWARD, Secretary.
Held at Lansing, January 7, 1919.
Greater county is entitled to fifteen delegates at the state convention.

A PROCLAMATION

In 1915, when the barbarous atrocities, massacres and deportations of the Armenian, Syrian, Persian, Greek and other peoples of Western Asia threatened to wipe out the Christian population of the Near East, American dollars saved these people from complete annihilation.

In that year, there was formed in New York City, the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, and this organization thru and with the co-operation of the American people, has expended in the amelioration of the suffering, over $12,000,000.00.

It is estimated that four million people are perishing from hunger and disease incident thereto, while we rejoice with our allies in victory recently won.

On January 12, 1919, the American Committee for Relief in the Near East (formerly the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief) will start a campaign nation wide, for $30,000,000.00, the minimum sum necessary to save these refugees from starvation.

I wish to endorse the appeal of this Committee and I desire to aid in the work of saving these homeless, shel-terless, ancient people.

Therefore, confident that you, the people of Michigan, will listen to the call of the destitute and dying in the Near East, I call upon you to make generous contribution to sustain thru the winter months, those who have been left in a starving, shelterless condition, and to help re-establish thru the American Committee, these sorely oppressed people of the Near East in their homes on a self-supporting basis.

Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of January, nineteen hundred nineteen.

Albert E. Sleeper,
Governor of Michigan.

CHOOSING COMMISSIONERS

One big problem is confronting the voters of Alma during the next few months and that is to see that petitions for the right kind of men for commissioners for the City of Alma are properly launched, and that they are given the support at the primary and at the city election in April that should be given, capable, clean-cut citizens.

The matter of how the city of Alma is to be run during the next two years is absolutely up to the voters of the community, up to them to a greater degree than in the past, when conventions, some times hardly representative of the total number of voters, put forth their candidates.

Now it is up to the interested voters who desire the best, service which can be rendered, to get out petitions for, not the most suitable man of any party, but the most suitable, level-headed, hard-working, far-seeing citizen that can be secured as a candidate, see that these petitions are properly signed, and then work for the candidate and see that he is given the proper majority needed to elect him to office.

If the proper men are chosen as candidates, put through at the primary and elected at the April elections there will be no question but what the municipality will keep pace with the business enterprises of the city, that waste of money and of time will cease and that both of these will in the future be devoted to the best interests of Alma.

If the voters select such men to represent them in the commission, there will be no fear of things being left undone, of being half done. Such men will demand that they be done and that they shall be done right, and done at the lowest possible cost, consistent with good results.

LETTER FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

ON ACCOUNT OF ROOSEVELT'S DEATH BOTH HOUSES ADJOURN-ED ON DAY OF FUNERAL.

JEROME GIVEN APPROPRIATIONS

Everybody Appears Satisfied With Appointments Handed Down By Speaker Read.

(By William Lee Calhoun.)

Lansing

The death of Theodore Roosevelt brought much sadness to the Michigan legislature, in which are many who were personal friends of the former president. Adjournment of both houses on the day of the colonel's funeral was taken as a mark of respect to his memory and a special memorial meeting was arranged at which speeches of eulogy could be made by the selected orators of the senate and house.

In moving for the house adjournment out of respect for Col. Roosevelt's memory, Rep. James L. Jerome, of Detroit, said:

"In the passing of Col. Theodore Roosevelt the American nation, and the whole world as well, has suffered a great loss. He was loved by all for his great virtues and by many, even for his faults, for they were the faults of a man of great human sympathies. To Americans everywhere his death is a great personal loss."

Lieut. Gov. Dickinson and Speaker Read named two joint committees to arrange for the Roosevelt memorial meeting. The committee on arrangements is made up of Senators DeLand and Condon and Reps. Copley, Hopkins and Frank Smith. The committee on resolutions consists of Senators Scully and Dufoe and Reps. Jensen, Lewis and Wiley.

Gov. Sleeper sent a telegram to Mrs.
Roosevelt at Oyster Bay in which he said: "Please accept my deep sympathy in your great sorrow. The world mourns the loss of its foremost citizen, the United States of a true patriot and prophet, the people of an upright, fearless leader. The truth too, has lost an earnest champion."

Indicative of the legislature's expressed determination to do what it can for the Michigan soldiers and sailors in the war, and showing its sentiment in regard to them, a concurrent resolution offered in the house of representatives by Rep. Henry Croll has been adopted by the house and senate.
It says:

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring). That we, as Legislators of the State of Michigan, express, on behalf of the people of our great State, a profound appreciation of the patriotism, the personal sacrifice and devotion, and the herculean and splendid achievements of that great body of young men who went forth from the State of Michigan to battle for the freedom and safety of humanity, to uphold the honor of their country and of their flag, and to preserve for us and for coming generations the surety and sanctity of all that that flag represents. And in extending this appreciation we distinguish not at all between our soldiers—whether they served in the regular army, or the national guard, or in that marvelous creation our great national army; whether they fought on land, on the seas, or in the air; whether they were among those who reached the battle fronts, or among those who, on this side of the water, waited in impatient expectation in camp and in field, and be it further

Resolved, that in memory of those who have fallen in battle, or in any other way have given their lives while in the service of their country, we express to those who have been in this wise bested our deep sympathy, our solemn pride, and our abiding gratitude.

The big house committee chairmanships were given out this year by Speaker Read with more general satisfaction expressed about them than is ordinarily the case. The ways and means committee, which will handle the budget bill and before which will come everything that carries an appropriation was the one to which Speaker Read gave the most thought.
He finally got a well rounded committee whose membership includes men in nearly every branch of activity in Michigan, farmers, merchants, attorneys, newspaper men and others. This committee again is headed by James D. Jerome, of Detroit, the veteran member of the whole house, now serving his seventh term. With him on the committee are Reps. Welsh, of Kent; Hopkins, of Manistee; Croll, of Clare; Brower, of Jackson; Leland, of Allegan; Wiley, of Chippewa; Parrier, of Presque Isle; and O'Brien, of Iron.

Rep. Martin Wiley, of the Soo, drew the lawyers' prize, the chairmanship of the judiciary committee. Rep. A.
Ward Copley, of Detroit, heads the taxation committee; Rep. Lynn Lewis, of Van Buren, again is chairman of

DIED IN THE WEST

Word has been received of the death of Ira Jeffrey, aged 47 years, at Chico, Cal. He was a former resident of Ithaca, and one of the two sons of the late John Jeffrey, founder of the village of Ithaca. He platted the village in 1856 and in March of that year it was made the county seat by the board of supervisors. Five years ago Ira Jeffrey moved to California with his wife.
